

WE'RE MAKING THINGS EASIER

Your Program Committee is always working hard to create an exciting line-up of events and continuing education opportunities. The 2015 event program will include:

- Educational events either in Vancouver or Surrey that allow you to stay up-to-date on the latest topics, on what is happening in the industry and build your practice to the next level
- Choice of in-person or online webinar attendance for the Advocis Update 2015 seminar which highlights the key changes in the insurance industry during the past year
- Additional programs developed by Advocis national
- An ongoing effort to present exciting new speakers and relevant topics

Our chapter is the national leader in providing excellent education and networking opportunities to our members. We encourage every member to participate fully.

CE Accreditation Process

Please note that we may not be able to confirm CE Credits for seminars before they occur. We are targeting 1.0 CE Credit for every one hour of program content that we deliver and will update the event listing on our website to include the number of CE Credits as soon as we have received accreditation from The Institute. Once CE Credits have been issued, CE Certificates will be available online for printing by logging in to the member only section at www.advocis.ca. Non-members can contact the Advocis Vancouver office to request a non-member login.

For complete information on how accreditation is assigned, please go to:
